

NDIA LOMC

Logistics & Sustainment Human Capital Initiative

Life Cycle Logistics Working Group

Status Report
24 August 2007

Bill Kobren (in abstentia)

Life Cycle Logistics WG - Background

- Life Cycle Logistics (also called Defense System Program Logistics) one of five “components” of the DoD civilian workforce identified in Oct 06 DoD Logistics HCSP Executive Report
- Encompasses “the programmatic planning and analysis, acquisition, sustainment, oversight, and modernization of new and iterative defense system support performance and sustainment capabilities”.

Life Cycle Logistics WG – Draft Evaluation Report Framework

- Life Cycle Logistics Definition
- Typical Duties and Responsibilities
- Life Cycle Logistics Career Field Overview
- Typical Positions
- Typical Organizations
- Technical Competencies
- Life Cycle Logistics workforce sizing and demographic metrics
- Status of current workforce management in the career field
- Current Life Cycle Logistics Workforce Training
- Future DoD Life Cycle Logistics Training - Core Plus
- Life Cycle Logistics Workforce Professional Certification
- Define the Life Cycle Logistician of the Future 2010-2020 ( Future Environment, Future Life Cycle Logistics Competencies, and Future Considerations, Issues, and Recommendations)
- References

Life Cycle Logistics WG – Working Group Members

- Bill Kobren (DAU)
- Bruce Pieper (Raytheon)
- Bob Bodenschatz (EM Solutions)

Note: Still Looking for a few more good loggies to support this team! Additional volunteers welcome! Contact Bill at bill.kobren@dau.mil

Life Cycle Logistics WG – Status

- Form Initial Team – Complete
- Enlist additional desired members – In work
- Gather data re: competencies already defined – In work
- Write First draft evaluation and send out for comment by team - Complete
- Next Steps – Consolidate inputs and revise evaluation