

BIOGRAPHY

SCOTT LANDGUTH

Scott Landguth is the Executive Director of the South Dakota Ellsworth Development Authority, an agency created by the South Dakota legislature to work hand in hand with local governments, the private sector and property owners to promote the health and safety of those living and working near Ellsworth and to the protect and promote the economic impact of Ellsworth and associated industries.

Scott was born and raised in Rapid City, South Dakota. He attended and graduated from Rapid City Stevens High School. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from the University of South Dakota and then continued his education by obtaining a Master of Science degree in Civil/Environmental Engineering from the South Dakota School of Mines and Technology.

Community Involvement

Military Spouse Licensure – Led the effort to pass legislation in South Dakota allowing for military spouses to have licensure reciprocity as they relocate to South Dakota from other States. Impacts all military spouses in South Dakota.

Air Force Chief of Staff Civic Leader – Participates in the Civic Leader program and advocates for Air Force issues National and on a State level.

Air Force Global Strike Command Civic Leader - Participates in the Civic Leader program and advocates for Global Strike issues National and on a State level.

Black Hills Military Advisor Coalition Board Member – Board Member on an organization that works to address issues facing the military across the region with a primary focus on quality of life issues.

South Dakota Game Fish and Parks Outdoor Campus Capital Campaign – Part of a committee that raised funds to construct the Outdoor Campus which provides educational displays and opportunities for the community. Schools use the facility as a tool in their science and biological curriculum.