

COVID-19 Environmental Health and Safety Guidelines for Visitors

Visitors to the Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Laboratory (APL) should be aware of the following restrictions and guidelines for visits:

- Effective October 16, 2021, visitors must attest to being fully vaccinated or show a negative COVID-19 test result (from within 72 hours) to enter the main campus and other APL facilities. Please complete this survey within a week of your expected visit; confirmation for access is valid for seven days.
- Visitors must be free from any COVID-like symptoms.
- Visitors must not have been directed to quarantine for any reason within the 10 days prior to arrival at APL
- Visitors are required to wear masks in public, indoor locations on campus, regardless of vaccination status. Those who are alone in private offices do not need to wear masks.
- Unvaccinated visitors must wear a mask and maintain a social distance on campus at all times, in accordance with CDC guidance.
- For everyone's health and safety...
 - Use respiratory etiquette, including covering coughs and sneezes
 - Wash your hands and use sanitizer dispensers at entry points
 - Stay at home if you have any symptoms commonly associated with COVID-19

Mandatory COVID-19 Questionnaire for All Visitors

Question 1: Have you tested positive for COVID-19 in the past 14 days?

Question 2: Are you currently under a government or physician's directive to self-quarantine for any reason, including a suspected COVID-19 infection, exposure to a COVID-19 case, or because of travel?

Question 3: Have you experienced ANY of the following symptoms of COVID-19 infection in the last 10 days?

- Fever or chills
- Cough
- Shortness of breath or difficulty breathing
- Fatigue
- Muscle or body aches
- Unusual headache
- New loss of taste or smell
- Sore throat
- Congestion or runny nose
- Nausea or vomiting
- Diarrhea

If your answer is "yes" to any of these questions, per APL policy and current state and health agency guidance, you will not be allowed access to the facility.
