Steven Griffin

Deputy Assistant Secretary, Information Analysis Directorate, Countering Weapons of Mass Destruction (CWMD) Office

Steve Griffin is the Deputy Assistant Secretary for the Information Analysis Directorate within the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) Countering Weapons of Mass Destruction (CWMD) office. In this role, he manages and drives the intelligence cycle as part of the DHS Intelligence Enterprise in order to collect and produce information and intelligence to answer DHS's intelligence requirements relating to chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear, food-agriculture-veterinary, and health security issues.

Prior to his current assignment, Griffin served as the Director of Plans and Operations in U.S. Customs and Border Protection's (CBP) Office of Intelligence (OI) where he was responsible for the management of CBP's nationwide collection operations, including technical collection, human intelligence, and full motion video exploitation. Prior to that, he served as the Deputy Director of OI's Counterintelligence Division, where he managed the cyber intelligence and insider threat programs. Griffin's previous Intelligence Community assignments include a variety of analytical, operational, and managerial positions with the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD), U.S. Cyber Command (CYBERCOM), and the National Security Agency (NSA).

Griffin began his career in the U.S. Army, where he served as both an armor officer and a military intelligence officer. He has numerous combat deployments to the CENTCOM theater. As a U.S. Army Reservist, he has served in a number of intelligence, staff, and command assignments supporting the Office of the Undersecretary of Defense for Intelligence and Security (OUSD I&S), U.S. Central Command (CENTCOM), U.S. Pacific Command (PACOM), U.S. Special Operations Command (SOCOM), the Joint Special Operations Command (JSOC), U.S. Army Europe (USAREUR), the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), and the National Ground Intelligence Center (NGIC).

Griffin holds master's degrees in national security policy and military arts and science from Georgetown University and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, bachelor's degrees in business and history from Auburn University, and is a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, the Military Intelligence Captains Career Course, the CIA Kent School's Career Analyst Program, and the DHS Senior Executive Service Candidate Development Program. He is the recipient of several military and civilian decorations, including the Defense Superior Civilian Service Award, the Director of National Intelligence Meritorious Service Award, the Bronze Star, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Ranger Tab, and the U.S. Army General Douglas MacArthur Leadership Award.

COL Scott Gould, USA

Deputy Director, Joint Requirements Office for CBRN Defense

COL Scott D. Gould is the Deputy Director for the Joint Requirements Office for Chemical, Biological, Radiological, and Nuclear Defense within the Joint Staff J-8.

COL Gould commanded Dugway Proving Grounds in Utah (2019-2021), Blue Grass Chemical Activity (2016-2018) at Blue Grass Army Depot in Kentucky, the 44th Chemical Company (2001-2003), and the 503rd Chemical Detachment in Heidelberg, Germany (1997-1999).

His key assignments include Chief of the Technical Training Department at the USACBRN School, the Operations Officer for the 110th Chemical Battalion (Technical Escort), the Executive Officer for the 23rd Chemical Battalion, the CBRN Officer for the J5/8 Combating Weapons of Mass Destruction Branch, and Executive Officer to the J5/8 at Headquarters, U.S. European Command, Stuttgart, Germany. Prior to his current assignment he was the Full Spectrum Protection Division Chief at HQDA DCS G-8.

He received his commission through the Reserve Officer Training Corps as a Distinguished Military Graduate from the University of Colorado with a degree in Physics. He holds master's degrees in Engineering Management from Missouri University of Science and Technology, and in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College.

HARASSMENT STATEMENT

NDIA is committed to providing a professional environment free from physical, psychological and verbal harassment. NDIA will not tolerate harassment of any kind, including but not limited to harassment based on ethnicity, religion, disability, physical appearance, gender, or sexual orientation. This policy applies to all participants and attendees at NDIA conferences, meetings and events. Harassment includes offensive gestures and verbal comments, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, inappropriate photography and recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome attention. Participants requested to cease harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately, and failure will serve as grounds for revoking access to the NDIA event.

EVENT CODE OF CONDUCT

NDIA's Event Code of Conduct applies to all National Defense Industrial Association (NDIA), National Training & Simulation Association (NTSA), and Women In Defense (WID) meeting-related events, whether in person at public or private facilities, online, or during virtual events. NDIA, NTSA, and WID are committed to providing a productive and welcoming environment for all participants. All participants are expected to abide by this code as well as NDIA's ethical principles and practices. Visit NDIA.org/CodeOfConduct to review the full policy.

ANTITRUST STATEMENT

The NDIA has a policy of strict compliance with federal and state antitrust laws. The antitrust laws prohibit competitors from engaging in actions that could result in an unreasonable restraint of trade. Consequently, NDIA members must avoid discussing certain topics when they are together at formal association membership, board, committee, and other meetings and in informal contacts with other industry members: prices, fees, rates, profit margins, or other terms or conditions of sale (including allowances, credit terms, and warranties); allocation of markets or customers or division of territories; or refusals to deal with or boycotts of suppliers, customers or other third parties, or topics that may lead participants not to deal with a particular supplier, customer or third party.
