Welcome to the 2018 Women In Defense National Conference

On behalf of the WID National Council, thank you for attending the 2018 Women In Defense National Conference. We showcase this year's theme – Smart, Strong, Successful... #IAMWID – by recognizing and hearing from exceptional leaders, exploring ways to make our workplaces more attractive to talented individuals, offering workshops to provide practical professional advice and strategies, and by emphasizing networking with fellow attendees.

WID's two-fold mission is to provide women with a formal environment for professional growth and strengthen the workforce by creating programs and opportunities that encourage talented women to fill critical-skilled trade and technical positions in the Defense Industry. Since its incorporation in 1985, WID has provided programming to enable professional growth through strategic networking, education and career development. This national alliance includes women and men from industry and defense organizations of every size; all branches of the U.S. Armed Forces; government agencies; academia; think tanks; associations and professional services.

We encourage you to connect with colleagues, expand your professional toolkit, strengthen your skills with our Power Workshops, and celebrate the success of our Service to the Flag awardees. Once again, welcome!

Lori Lindholm
Chair, National Council
Women In Defense

Women In Defense

WID strengthens the Defense Industrial Base and workforce by promoting programming that creates and enhances opportunities for women, increasing diversity within the defense community.

MISSION:

Powering Defense Leaders: Provide women with a formal environment for professional growth through strategic networking, education, and professional development.

Growing Our Replacements: Create educational, coaching, and mentoring opportunities to encourage and enable young women to pursue STEM careers in support of national defense.

HARASSMENT POLICY

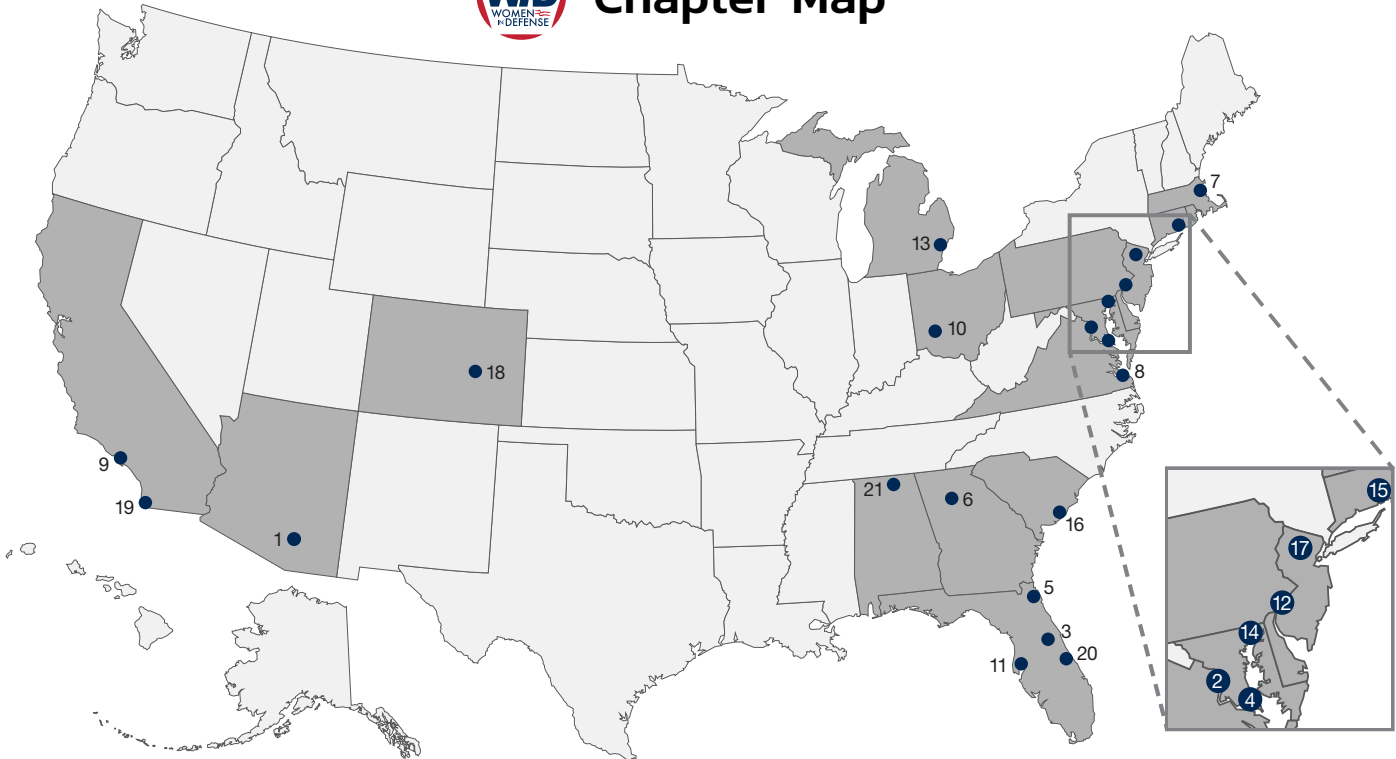

NDIA and its affiliates are committed to providing a professional environment free from physical, psychological and verbal harassment. NDIA will not tolerate harassment of any kind, including but not limited to harassment based on ethnicity, religion, disability, physical appearance, gender, or sexual orientation. This policy applies to all participants and attendees at NDIA conferences, meetings and events. Harassment includes offensive gestures and verbal comments, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, inappropriate photography and recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome attention. Participants requested to cease harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately, and failure will serve as grounds for revoking access to the NDIA event.

Join the WID Family Today

Women In Defense traces its roots to 1979 when a group of women saw the need for an organization dedicated to networking and professional development within the defense and national security workspace. We welcome all women and men working in defense and national security to join WID. Membership provides access to a broad national network of women and men working in government, the defense industry and academia. Membership also provides access to 21 local chapters, which provide leadership, networking, professional development and mentoring opportunities throughout the year. Membership is free for government employees and active military and $40 per year for industry and academia members. You can find membership information at WomenInDefense.net/Join

LIEUTENANT GENERAL GWENDOLYN BINGHAM, USA

Assistant Chief of Staff for Installation Management

LTG Gwendolyn Bingham, United States Army distinguished herself by outstanding service to the United States from 1981 through the present. In 2016 the United States Senate confirmed LTG Bingham as the Army Assistant Chief of Staff for Installation Management, where she serves as the principal adviser to the Chief of Staff of the Army for installation management, facilities investments, morale, welfare, recreation and family support programs.

LTG Bingham graduated from the University of Alabama in 1981 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in General Business Management and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Quartermaster Corps after completing the University of Alabama's Army ROTC program as a Distinguished Military Graduate. LTG Bingham earned a Master of Administration degree from Central Michigan University and a Master of National Security Strategy and Resources degree from the National Defense University. LTG Bingham has also completed or graduated from the Quartermaster Officer Basic and Advanced Courses; the Combined Arms and Services Staff School; Army Command and General Staff College; the Army Inspector General Course; Industrial College of the Armed Forces and the CAPSTONE General and Flag Officer Course.

LTG Bingham has served in staff and leadership positions at all echelons of command from Platoon Leader to Two-Star Commanding General. In her most recent assignments, LTG Bingham deployed in April 2010 in support of Operations IRAQI FREEDOM and ENDURING FREEDOM as the Special Assistant to the Commanding General, 1st Theater Sustainment Command, Camp Arifjan, Kuwait, Kabul, Afghanistan, and Kandahar, Afghanistan. Upon completion of her deployment, LTG Bingham served as the 51st Quartermaster General of the United States Army and Commandant of the U.S. Army Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Virginia. She has also served as the Commanding General, White Sands Missile Range, New Mexico. Prior to her current assignment, she served as Commanding General, U.S. Army Tank-automotive and Armaments Life Cycle Management Command, Warren, Michigan.

For her exceptional contributions to our Nation's defense, Women In Defense proudly presents the 2018 Service to the Flag Award to LTG Gwendolyn Bingham.

EREN OZMEN

*Owner and President
Sierra Nevada Corporation*

Eren Ozmen distinguished herself through outstanding service to the United States as an entrepreneur, innovator and leader in the defense industry. Eren Ozmen embodies the American Dream, using her passion and determination to build a recognized world leader in aerospace, Sierra Nevada Corporation. In addition to successfully leading Sierra Nevada Corporation, Eren focuses on leveraging her success to benefit America's next generation of entrepreneurs with similarly big dreams and aspirations.

Eren joined Sierra Nevada Corporation in 1988, shortly after receiving her MBA from the University of Nevada, Reno. Eren and her husband Fatih Ozmen acquired Sierra Nevada in 1994, and under their strategic leadership grew the company to employ more than 3,500 personnel in the U.S. and abroad. Eren is actively involved in all strategic aspects of Sierra Nevada's business management, prioritizing healthy work-life policies, and under her leadership Sierra Nevada has received numerous awards for innovation, growth, and employee satisfaction. She relentlessly focuses on the future, with optimism and energy, continuously improving, adapting, and creatively tackling America's toughest defense challenges. With humility and gratitude for the opportunities America has afforded them, the Ozmens are committed to paying it forward in the country that catalyzed their success, with a specific focus on job creation. Based on her significant impact on her adopted country, in 2017 the Carnegie Corporation of New York honored Eren alongside Nobel and Pulitzer prize winners, statesmen, university presidents, scientists and humanitarians as one of Carnegie's "Great Immigrants, Great Americans." Eren also serves on the Board of the Smithsonian Air & Space Museum in Washington, DC.

For her exceptional contributions to our Nation's industrial base and security, Women In Defense proudly presents the 2018 Service to the Flag Award to Eren Ozmen.

Congratulations Eren Ozmen

2018 Women in Defense: Service to the Flag Award Recipient

Entrepreneur and humanitarian Eren Ozmen embodies an inspiring American Dream story, bringing her passion and determination first to the United States as a young student, and then to building Sierra Nevada Corporation, a global leader in space, aviation, national security and defense.

With humility and gratitude for the opportunities America has afforded, Ozmen is committed to pay it forward in the country that catalyzed her success.

Holland & Knight is proud to support the

2018 Women in Defense National Conference

We are the home of the brave because of you, and our Veterans Group is dedicated to providing the men and women who have defended our freedoms the legal talent and resources to improve their quality of life.

We offer pro bono support and sponsor military initiatives that benefit active-duty service members, veterans and their families, such as the Wounded Warrior Project and United Way's Mission United Initiative.

Thank you for your service.
